The 1996 Survey of Scientific and Engineering Research Facilities at Colleges and Universities was developed under joint sponsorship and direction of the National Institutes of Health (NIH), and of the National Science Foundation (NSF). Dr. Paul Seder and Dr. Charles Coulter, NIH Office of Science Policy, guided the implementation of the study and the preparation of this report. Dr. Ann Lanier, Senior Science Resources Analyst, NSF Division of Science Resources, provided oversight and guidance during the survey.

- James E. Swartz, Professor of Chemistry, Grinnell College
- Jacqueline Wender, Associate Provost for Facilities Planning, Stanford University
- Karen Yarbrough, Vice President for Research and Planning, The University of Southern Mississippi
- Bruce Gillars, Facilities Coordinator, University of Utah
- Robert McGhee, Director of Research Facility Planning, Howard Hughes Institute
- William R. Tibbs, Jr., Principal, Tibbs Associates
- Earl S. Richardson, President, Morgan State University
- Jaleh Daie, Senior Science Advisor for Academic Affairs, University of Wisconsin Madison

In addition, NSF sought advice on the development of the survey from higher education association and university representatives, who graciously provided information of considerable importance to the success of the project.

Administrators at the higher education associations and societies who reviewed and commented on the report included:

- Marvin E. Ebel, Council on Governmental Relations (COGR)
- Howard Gobstein, Federal Relations Office, Michigan State University
- Wayne Leroy, Association of Physical Plant Administrators of Universities and Colleges

- Jeanne Narum, Independent Colleges Offices (ICO)
- Jerold Roschwalb, National Association of State Universities and Land-Grant Colleges (NASULGC)
- John G. Stevens, Council on Undergraduate Research (CUR)

The 1996 survey was conducted by The Gallup Organization of Rockville, Maryland, under contract to NSF (Contract Number SRS-9317363). Gregory Gaertner served as Gallup's overall Project Director; Jennifer Spielvogel led field operations; Manas Chattopadhyay was the project statistician; and Yonghe Yang directed the data processing for the survey. Alison Cooper and Betty Garrison managed the production of the report.

Subcontractors for the project were Pelavin Research Institute (PRI) and the American Institutes for Research (AIR). Rita Kirshstein headed the Pelavin team, Susan Kleimann directed the AIR contributors, and Ray Varisco edited the report.

NIH and the project team also acknowledge the indispensable contributions of the many officials and staff members at the sample institutions who completed the survey questionnaires.
